

Bristow & Sutor announce Managing Director

Redditch October 2003: Bristow & Sutor is pleased to announce the appointment of Andrew Rose as Managing Director. He succeeds Simon Sutor who takes on the role of Chairman.

One of the largest privately owned civil enforcement agents and certificated bailiffs, Bristow & Sutor has been providing services to Local Authorities, Magistrates Courts and Commercial Landlords for over 25 years.

Andrew Rose joined Bristow & Sutor in 1982. Since 1990 he has been General Manager of the company and was appointed a Director in January 1996 during which time he held office as President of Enforcement Services Association from 2000 – 2002, was appointed to several central government working groups, notably the Advisory Group for the Delivery of Enforcement Services. He was also executive sponsor for the successful implementation of the new ISO 9001:2000 quality assurance standard at Bristow & Sutor.

Rose will take responsibility for Bristow & Sutor's entire civil enforcement business. His objective is to expand the company's portfolio of clients across the disciplines of decriminalised parking, council tax, business rates, commercial rent and magistrates' court fines.

Commenting on the appointment, Bristow & Sutor Chairman, Simon Sutor said: "Andy has shown a tremendous detail-oriented approach. We expect him to continue the role in ensuring that our work is of the highest quality and completed with the greatest efficiency possible. As a company we are experiencing rapid growth in the decriminalised parking arena and there is no doubt that Andy will help to drive our success even further, continuing to improve and offering customer's genuine added value.

Rose responded: "I am really excited about the opportunities and challenges that lie ahead for the company. We are breaking new ground with a new corporate identity, and have developed a marketing strategy and sustained campaign which has resulted in our successful entry into the decriminalised parking market. At Bristow & Sutor, we have a culture of continuous improvement underpinned by the drive and determinism of a vastly experienced management team. I look forward to leveraging our company's expertise and knowledge to create best practices that benefit all of our customers."
