Derby City Council extend contract

December 2005: Derby City Council has appointed Bristow & Sutor civil enforcement agents to collect outstanding council tax and business rates. The 2 year contract extension is effective from December 2005.

Andy Rose, Bristow & Sutor Managing Director, said, "Bristow & Sutor is delighted to remain the partner of choice at Derby City Council. In addition to Derby City Council, we have recently extended our client portfolio in this region which will bring benefit to all parties through consistency in approach and maximising resources in the area."
