

Tamworth reappoint Bristow & Sutor

April 2007: Tamworth Borough Council has re-appointed Bristow & Sutor to collect outstanding council tax and business rates. The 3 year contract is effective immediately.

Michael Buckland, Principal Revenues Officer at Tamworth Borough Council said, "Bristow & Sutor have been awarded the contract as a result of collection performance, low level of complaints and strong references in the area. Previous experience with Bristow & Sutor has proven a high level of professionalism and being locally based, they have the ability to deploy sufficient number of resources to meet our demand."

Andy Rose commented, "This contract win underlines our reputation for maintaining long-term relationships; we have partnered with Tamworth for more than 22 years and strive to improve year-on-year performance by investing in our own resources, tools and new technology. This tender win clearly establishes Bristow & Sutor's credentials as the trusted supplier for bailiff services."
