

Lichfield District Council is Best of the Best

October 2006: Bristow & Sutor is once again proud to be associated with the winner of the 2006 IRRV “Revenues Team of the Year” Award. Lichfield District Council were announced the winning team at the Performance Awards Gala Dinner at the IRRV Annual Conference in Brighton on 12 October.

Sir Trevor MacDonald presented Nicola Begley, Recovery Manager at Lichfield District Council and her team with the trophy. Nicola said that the Council had overcome hurdles, remained positive, embraced change and innovation, challenged the way they worked and set firm foundations for the future in order to win this award. Nicola also added that Bristow & Sutor had helped greatly in achieving this goal by providing an effective bailiff function and added value services.

Andy Rose, Bristow & Sutor Managing Director commented, “Sincere congratulations to Lichfield District Council. This particular award is a real accolade for the winning council and the response when Lichfield’s name was announced during the Awards ceremony was deafening. Last year, North Warwickshire Borough Council won the same title. The fact that this award has been won by our clients for the past two years is also a compliment to Bristow & Sutor – we look forward to seeing the entries for next years event . Perhaps we can make it a hat trick!”

Other finalists included Derwentside District Council, Hartlepool Borough Council, Kirklees Metropolitan Borough Council and Stoke-on-Trent City Council.

- ends -